Today's announcement by Futuris Corporation Limited regarding its shareholding in AAco

ASX Announcement No. 25/2008

6 May 2008

The Futuris announcement today gives finality to what has been a difficult phase over the last 6 months.

AAco can now move forward with confidence on a range of initiatives designed to take advantage of renewed international interest in the value and importance of agricultural production.

The quality of the Company's northern landholdings has elicited a high level of market interest and it is the Company's responsibility to deliver value to shareholders on these unique holdings.

AAco looks forward to fulfilling and enhancing plans embarked upon over recent years to grow shareholder wealth underpinned by quality land and cattle portfolios and established food brands.
